

honoring our nation's data heroes

This Public Service Recognition Week, we want to recognize the 2025 Federal Data Excellence Award winners who build data tools that benefit everyday Americans

we love data!
we really love data!

2026 Public Service Recognition Week

The Administrative Product Award goes to...

Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation for BankFind Suite

One way this data tool saves the day:

After a loved one passes away, relatives are able to locate their bank account by using the FDIC's BankFind Suite to identify the bank now responsible for an account opened decades ago.

2026 Public Service Recognition Week

The Geospatial Product Award goes to...

USDA Forest Service Field Services and Innovation Center's Geospatial Office for Landscape Change Monitoring System

One way this data tool saves the day:

Timber producers get early warning about encroaching Southern Pine Beetle infestations from the Landscape Change Monitoring System so they can implement prevention strategies and minimize the use of chemicals

2026 Public Service Recognition Week

The Statistical Product Award goes to...

Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality – Department of Health and Human Services for Medical Expenditure Panel Survey Household Component

One way this data tool saves the day:

People living paycheck to paycheck get dental check-ups through a regional program that reduces overdue dental visits, a goal of HHS' Healthy People 2030 framework which incorporates Medical Expenditure Panel Survey data.

2026 Public Service Recognition Week

The Honorable Mention for Static Product goes to...

The U.S. Fire Administration for the National Fire Incident Reporting System

One way this data tool saves the day:

National Fire Incident Reporting System data revealed that nearly 5,000 home fires occur every year due to dryer lint. A tween learning to do laundry prevents tragedies like this because a local firefighter prioritized dryer safety in a presentation to a middle school health class.

a round of applause for some of our nation's data heroes

clap clap clap
clap clap clap

like the USDA and FDIC teams looking gorgeous with their awards!
